

Friends of the Plaistow Library

2-4-13 Meeting started at 6:15PM

In attendance were Michelle Sykes, Jeanne LeBlanc, Linda Morrissey and Diane Arrato Gavrish.

Correction to 11-12-12 minutes: Gift cards for Annie Averill and her string quartet that performed at LuAnn Blair's retirement party on 12-10-12 were supplied by the library fund per the trustees instead of from the friends' as previously reported. Also The Lions Club did not donate a sign rather the library is hoping they will do so in honor of literacy.

Minutes from the 11-12-12 meeting were reviewed and will be corrected on the minutes from 2-4-13.

Treasurer's report per Jeanne is $4,794.66 as of 12-31-12 and this includes profit and reimbursement from November vendor fair and also a $80 donation in December.

Lucinda pins leftover from previous friends' group—sold 12 @ $3.00 each for a total of $36.00 profit.

Rick Blair has not billed us for his cheesecake class as of today.

150 kids attended take your child to the library day on 2-2-13. Nancy, the children's librarian requested $40.00 for Feb vacation program. "A Moment in Time" author will read book and conduct crafts with a special moment theme. Jeanne made motion, Michelle seconded, and ayes have it.

Candidate's night is 2-19-13 and friends' will co-sponsor and provide refreshments.

Present membership total is 115.

Valentine.basket raffle will consist of duplicate purchases in error, Jeanne will add wine and chocolate and tickets will be $1.00 each.

Trustee meeting 2-11-13. Two openings for March election however two more spots will have to be filled as well as two additional trustees decided to retire but the announcement was too late for ballot. Deb Hoadley will be the only original member left and she along with the friends' will host a going away party for retiring trustees after March election. Look into getting a plaque that will have space for future members.

Reads-To-Go is part of NH Library Assoc. and part of inter-library loan. Plaistow library is in possession of "Bel Canto" Our copies are in poor condition and there is not much interest in this title so can it be retired? Friends' would sponsor new title to purchase as a kit that would include 15 books in different formats to be used for book groups.

Meeting adjourned 7:35PM-----next meeting 3-4-13
